Emergency Evacuation during Public Examinations

This policy details how the centre deals with an emergency evacuation of the exam room by defining staff roles and responsibilities and confirming the emergency evacuation procedure

When is an emergency evacuation required?

An emergency evacuation is required where it is unsafe for candidates to remain in the exam room. This might include a fire in the exam room, the fire alarm sounding to warn of fire, bomb alert or other serious threat.

In exceptional situations, where candidates might be severely disadvantaged or distressed by remaining in the exam room, the emergency evacuation procedure may also need to be followed.

This might include situations where there is severe disruption in the exam room, serious illness of a candidate or invigilator or similarly serious incidents.

Emergency evacuation of the exam room

Roles and responsibilities

Head of centre

- Ensures the emergency evacuation policy for exams is fit for purpose and complies with relevant health and safety regulation
- Ensures all staff and appointed fire marshals are aware of the policy and procedures to be followed when an emergency evacuation of an exam room is required
- Ensures appropriate arrangements are in place for the emergency evacuation of a disabled candidate from an exam room where different procedures or assistance may need to be provided for the candidate

Exams officer

- Ensures invigilators are trained in emergency evacuation procedures and how an incident and actions taken must be recorded
- Ensures candidates are briefed prior to exams taking place, on what will happen in the event of an emergency in the exam room

- Provides invigilators with a copy of the emergency evacuation procedures
- Ensures appropriate follow-up is undertaken after an emergency evacuation reporting the incident to the awarding body and the actions taken through the special consideration process

Invigilators

- Follow the actions required in the emergency evacuation procedure issued to them for the exam room
- Confirm with the exams officer, where different procedures or assistance may need to be provided for a disabled candidate they are invigilating

Emergency evacuation procedure (Where an Examination Board provides their own guidance it will be used)

The invigilators will:

- Stop the candidates from writing
 - Collect the attendance register (in order to ensure all candidates are present) and evacuate the examination room escorting the students to the designated area away from the main building and other students by the fence adjacent to Jamaica Road.
 - Inform candidates they must leave the room in silence and not communicate with each other, or other students, whilst out of the room.
 - Make sure that the candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room to make sure there is no discussion about the examination.
 - When instructed supervise the return of the candidates to the exam room.
 - Make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted.
 - Allow the candidates the full working time set for the examination.
 - Make a detailed report of the incident and of the action taken, and send to the relevant awarding body
- points to the exam room will be locked.

When it is safe to return to the building, the candidates will be led back to their examination room and as soon as all candidates are seated and settled the examination will be resumed. The candidates will be entitled to the full time for the examination.

The Exams Officer will contact the Examination Board in accordance with JCQ regulations.

If a candidate is present who may need assistance in the event of an emergency evacuation, a named invigilator will be asked to take responsibility for escorting/aiding this candidate to the assembly point.

Upon returning to the room:

- Allow the candidates a small amount of time to settle, while reminding them they are still under exam conditions.

- Instruct the candidates they will resume from where they left off and the finish time will be adjusted accordingly.
- Adjust the finish time accordingly
- Record as much information as possible so a report can be made to the exam board.

Should the exam be abandoned:

- The exam contingency plan will be invoked and you will be briefed by the Exams Officer at the time
